

Issue #23, September 2009

This Issue

1. Launch of the 'new look' LDC Group website
2. Kathy Maher – welcome to the LDC Group team
3. Congratulations to Dr Mark Lyall
4. Association for Qualitative Research (AQR) Upcoming AGM

Launch of the 'new look' LDC Group website

Throughout the year, we have been exploring new ways of utilising our website to keep clients informed of project developments and to increase interactivity. As a result, we decided it was time the website had a facelift.

We hope that you will find the new layout easier to navigate and to read.

www.ldc.net.au

Kathy Maher – welcome to the LDC Group team

LDC Group would like to welcome administration officer Kathy Maher.

Kathy is an excellent communicator and provides invaluable support to our team.

Kathy is responsible for supporting the smooth running of the office, undertaking administrative tasks including answering the telephone and emails, typing, data entry and scheduling appointments for consultants

Congratulations to Dr Mark Lyall

The LDC Group team congratulates Mark Lyall who was recently awarded a PhD in Media Studies after several years of hard work and dedication to the development of an opera for radio. We are very proud and privileged to have Mark on our team, coordinating multimedia projects. Well done Dr Mark Lyall!

Association for Qualitative Research (AQR) Upcoming AGM

The AQR Committee of Management warmly invites you to the AGM on 11th November 2008, 5.30pm to 8.30pm at RMIT University of Technology, building 108, 239 Bourke Street Melbourne, Level 7, room 23.

The guest speaker at the AGM, Assoc Prof. Rosalind Hurworth, is the Director of the Centre for Program at the University of Melbourne, Faculty of Education where she teaches Qualitative Methods to post graduates. She has carried out numerous research and evaluation projects during her career and has particular expertise in gathering and analysing qualitative data, using such methods as telephone focus groups and the use of the visual medium. She has been a member of AQR since its inception and is currently a member of the editorial board. She has also been the recipient of the AES Training and Service Award and is current co-editor of the Evaluation Journal of Australasia.

The AGM will be brief and so please come along for drinks to celebrate the end of the year.

If you are interested in a particular subject that you would like us to write about, please email us. If we consider that we can competently discuss the subject then we will provide an article in the newsletter. Requests should be emailed to: mark@ldc.net.au

To unsubscribe to the newsletter please send an email to: ldcquarterly@ldc.net.au and type 'unsubscribe' as the subject.